Dear Mr. Fachini:

RE: Licensure and Registration Status of Charity Music, Inc. - CS# 30227

This letter responds to your request for confirmation of the status of Charity Music, Inc., with the Attorney General's Charitable Trust Section.

Following correspondence with our office in early 2005, it appears that Charity Music, Inc, a Michigan nonprofit corporation, undertook the following steps: 1) it applied for and received a favorable determination from the IRS regarding its application for federal tax-exempt status as a charitable organization; 2) it submitted an application for a license to solicit charitable contributions to the Attorney General's Charitable Trust Section; and 3) it furnished our office with documents and information necessary to become registered as a charitable trust.

Charity Music, Inc. is now in good standing with the Charitable Trust Section. It is currently licensed to solicit charitable contributions, with an expiration date for the current year's license of July 31, 2007. It is also registered as a charitable trust and has provided the required 2005 financial statement by submitting IRS Form 990 (informational return for charitable organizations) covering 2005.

The 2005 report indicates that no compensation was paid that year. On the basis of our conversation today, it is our understanding that Charity Music continued to operate through 2006 with volunteers and has not engaged any professional fundraisers. We anticipate this will be reflected in the organization's 2006 financial statement (which is not yet due).

Please feel free to contact our office if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
